Currently Accepting Applications for

3rd/4th Grade Humanities Teacher (Full-time)

Are you a creative, innovative and caring educator who is seeking a position that is not bound by the expectations of traditional education?

Helios School is an innovative, independent school community for gifted children in grades K-8 in Sunnyvale, CA. We are seeking flexible, high-caliber educators who have:

● A background in the humanities, with a particular passion for literature and history
● Teaching experience and knowledge for promoting literacy across the disciplines
● A practice of life-long learning and continual professional development
● A desire to work collaboratively with colleagues
● A commitment to meet the needs of gifted children in an authentic and developmentally appropriate learning environment
● Flexibility and commitment to fostering a nurturing, creative and experiential environment that reinforces academic skills
● Ability to motivate and challenge students while maintaining a focused, orderly environment
● Ability to use an interactive, hands-on, project-based approach while promoting self-discovery and critical thinking
● Ability to use formative assessments to guide instruction and expectations
● Ability and interest to design and implement theme-based curriculum that engages young adolescents
● A positive, passionate attitude with demonstrated professionalism, responsibility, and work ethic

Requirements:
● A BA in English, history, or the social sciences
● A strong understanding of gifted learners or willingness to learn.
● Excellent communication and conflict resolution skills with children and adults.
● Currently eligible to be employed in the US.

Compensation: Benefits and competitive salary commensurate with education and experience.

Please submit a resume with a short cover letter expressing why you are seeking this position. Include a brief description of your educational philosophy and send to: careers@heliosns.org
