

March 2023

RENZULLI CENTER NEWS

Special Category

Earn Your Master's Degree at UConn!

GCT@UConn (a.k.a. Three Summers) is for motivated educators who have professional or family obligations that make on-site, academic year study impossible. The program is designed to allow educators to keep their teaching positions while earning a Master's degree or professional certificate part-time in two summers with additional online course work throughout the year. Applications to start this summer are due April 1.

Visit <https://giftedmasters.education.uconn.edu/> for more information.

For more information, contact: Stephanie Huntington at stephanie.huntington@uconn.edu

Confratute Announcements

Save the Dates for Confratute 2023!

Two events in 2023! [In Person & Virtual]

Upcoming Events

Webinars in March!

We have two webinars coming up this week!

Four Factors that Promote an Achievement-Oriented Attitude with Your Child

Thursday, March 9, 8 pm EST

Del Siegle, University of Connecticut

Developing Critical Thinkers in the Digital Age

Saturday, March 11, 11 am EST

Rebecca O'Brien, Whitworth University

Visit <https://gifted.uconn.edu/events/> to view our past events and to register for our other upcoming webinars!

For more information, contact: Stephanie Huntington at stephanie.huntington@uconn.edu

Del Siegle at NAGC L&A Conference

Del Siegle, Director of the Renzulli Center and of the National Center for Research on Gifted Education, will present at the NAGC Leadership and Advocacy Conference on March 19, 2023. More information about the conference is available here:

<https://nagc.org/events/EventDetails.aspx?id=1674219>

For more information, contact: Del Siegle at del.siegle@uconn.edu

RE Enjoyment
Engagement Enthusiasm
for Learning ENZULLI center
for creativity, gifted education, and talent development